

About Us

CancerCare® is a national nonprofit, 501 c(3) organization providing free, professional support services to anyone affected by cancer: people with cancer, caregivers, children, loved ones and the bereaved. CancerCare programs—including counseling and support groups, education, financial assistance and practical help—are provided by professional oncology social workers and are completely free of charge. For more information, call 1-800-813-HOPE (4673) or visit www.cancer.org.

What is the 2014 ASCO Annual Meeting?

The ASCO Annual Meeting brings together more than 25,000 oncology professionals from a broad range of specialties, making it an excellent venue for exploring the theme of the Meeting, "Science and Society - The Next 50 Years."

Cancer specialists from around the world will gather at the 2014 ASCO Annual Meeting, which is the platform for the release of thousands of scientific abstracts – highly anticipated research news for people living with cancer, their families, partners, friends, health care professionals and the general public.

News announced during each meeting includes the latest findings from cancer clinical trials, including new drug studies, which could change current standards of care.

How will this CancerCare Connect Education Workshop™ Series help you?

People living with cancer, their families, friends and health care professionals eagerly await the new data and information presented at this Annual Meeting. CancerCare's free Connect Education Workshop Series, held within days of the 2014 ASCO Annual Meeting will quickly communicate the new knowledge reported at the meeting in a format that is easy for you to understand. You will learn about new treatment approaches, recent developments in personalized medicine, the role of clinical trials and much more.
