Online Support Groups

When you or someone you love is affected by cancer, community is what matters most. CancerCare's online support groups connect patients, caregivers and the bereaved with others for shared support, understanding and resources. Each group is moderated by a professional oncology social worker with the goal of creating a confidential and safe place for all members. Each group lasts for 15 weeks.

BENEFITS OF ONLINE SUPPORT GROUPS

- Moderated by professional oncology social workers
- Private, password-protected groups
- Free of charge
- Available 24/7 for reading and posting messages
- "Bulletin board" message format, not a chat room
- Group members are screened prior to joining
- Accessible from the privacy and comfort of your own home
