Healing Hearts - Color of Grief Workshop Series Currently Recruiting

Using art as a positive outlet offers teens a creative way to facilitate the grief process. Adolescents may have a difficult time expressing their emotions when they have lost a loved one to cancer.

DESCRIPTION

CancerCare is offering a workshop that will help teens explore the relationship between color and feelings. The goal of this workshop is to assist teens in coping with their loss in a positive way to facilitate healing.

WHO CAN ATTEND

Teens (ages 13 - 17) who have lost a loved one to cancer within the past two years.

REGISTER

Space is limited and pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, call our Hopeline at 800-813-HOPE (4673) or Concetta Nono, LCSW at 201-301-6801 or cnono@cancercares.org
