

CANCERcare®
Help and Hope

FREE PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT SERVICES

CancerCare helps individuals, families, caregivers and the bereaved cope with the emotional and practical challenges of cancer. Our services include case management, counseling, support groups, educational workshops, publications and financial assistance. All of our services are provided by master's-prepared oncology social workers and are offered completely free of charge. To learn more, visit www.cancercares.org.

Older Adult Book Club

Are you an older adult (65+) with cancer? Are you interested in socializing with other older adults in a stimulating and fun environment?

CancerCare is offering a book club series for older adults with a cancer diagnosis. Our next book is How the Penguins Saved Veronica by Hazel Prior, a novel about adventure, family and second chances. Join our upcoming discussion as we share insights and personal connections to the story.

DAY/TIME

Tuesday, February 1 from 6 p.m. - 7 p.m. ET

LOCATION

This group will be held virtually using Zoom. If you are not able to use the video function, you will also be able to call into the group.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER, CONTACT

our Hopeline at 800-813-HOPE (4673) or Sarah Tennenhaus, LMSW at 212-712-6144 or stennenhaus@cancercares.org.
