

OLDER ADULT BOOK CLUB

CANCERcare®

Over 75 Years of Help and Hope

Join our virtual upcoming discussion as we share insights and personal connections to the story.

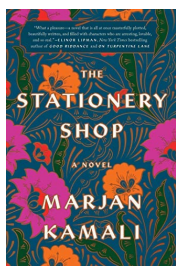

Sarah Tennenhaus, LMSW
Oncology Social Worker

Are you an older adult (65+) with cancer? Are you interested in socializing with other older adults in a stimulating and fun environment?

This program is open to national clients and is free, but pre-registration via Zoom is required.

DATE/TIME

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 2023 from 6 p.m. - 7 p.m. ET

CancerCare is offering a book club series for older adults with a cancer diagnosis. Our next book is “The Stationery Shop,” by Marjan Kamali.

This group will be held virtually using Zoom. If you are not able to use the video function, you will also be able to call in to the group.

Register Today!

For more information or to register, contact Sarah Tennenhaus, LMSW, at 212-712-6144 or stennenhaus@cancercare.org.

Facebook: facebook.com/cancercare | Instagram: @CancerCareUS | Twitter: @CancerCare