What is the 2021 ASCO Annual Meeting?

Over the past year, the COVID-19 pandemic has re-illuminated pervasive and unjust health inequities that exist all over the globe. Whether barriers result from our geography, race/ethnicity, age, sexual orientation and gender identity, health insurance, culture, or trust - or all of these - the 2021 ASCO Annual Meeting brings cancer specialists from around the globe to make certain that health equity in cancer care is a reality for every patient, every day, everywhere.

Cancer specialists from around the globe gather virtually at the 2021 ASCO Annual Meeting, which is the platform for the release of thousands of scientific abstracts—highly anticipated research news for people living with cancer, their families, partners, friends, health care professionals and the general public.

The 2021 ASCO Annual Meeting includes an outstanding lineup covering diverse and timely topics in cancer treatment, COVID-19, the latest findings from cancer trials, including new drug studies, which may change current standards of care and more.

How will this CancerCare Connect® Education Workshop Series help you?

People living with cancer, their families, partners, caregivers, friends and health care professionals eagerly await the new data and information presented at this ASCO 2021 Annual Meeting. CancerCare's free Workshop Series will quickly communicate the new knowledge reported at the meeting in a format that is easy for you to understand. You will learn about new treatment approaches, recent developments in precision medicine, the role of clinical trials and much more.
