

About Us

Founded in 1944, CancerCare is the leading national organization providing free, professional support services and information to help people manage the emotional, practical and financial challenges of cancer. Our comprehensive services include counseling and support groups over the phone, online and in-person, educational workshops, publications and financial and co-payment assistance. All CancerCare services are provided by oncology social workers and world-leading cancer experts. To learn more, visit www.cancercare.org or call 800-813-HOPE (4673).

What is the 2017 ASCO Annual Meeting?

The ASCO Annual Meeting brings together more than 30,000 oncology professionals from a broad range of specialties. This year's meeting explored the theme of "Making a Difference in Cancer Care with You."

Cancer specialists from around the world gathered at the 2017 ASCO Annual Meeting, which is the platform for the release of thousands of scientific abstracts—highly anticipated research news for people living with cancer, their families, partners, friends, health care professionals and the general public.

News announced during each meeting includes the latest findings from cancer clinical trials, including new drug studies, which may change current standards of care.

How will this CancerCare Connect® Education Workshop Series help you?

People living with cancer, their families, partners, caregivers, friends and health care professionals eagerly await the new data and information presented at this Annual Meeting. CancerCare's free Workshop Series will quickly communicate the new knowledge reported at the meeting in a format that is easy for you to understand. You will learn about new treatment approaches, recent developments in precision medicine, the role of clinical trials and much more.
