

TRANSPORTATION ASSISTANCE FOR: PEOPLE WITH MULTIPLE MYELOMA

CANCERcare®

Over 75 Years of Help and Hope

CancerCare's Multiple Myeloma Transportation Program is currently available to help provide financial, emotional and practical support. It includes the following for people living with multiple myeloma in active treatment:

TYPES OF CARE COVERED

- Financial assistance to eligible individuals to pay for transportation-related costs such as gas, taxis, Uber or Lyft and public transportation
- Resource referrals to help address needs resulting from multiple myeloma
- Emotional and practical support from CancerCare oncology social workers
- Educational information to help manage the emotional and logistical challenges of living with cancer

The financial assistance component of the program will continue until available funds are disbursed.
