Living with Cancer: Young Adult Patient Support Group Biweekly Support Group

A diagnosis of cancer can come when you least expect it. Suddenly your world has changed. You may feel overwhelmed and anxious and have questions about what lies ahead. The opportunity to connect with others living with cancer can help you feel less alone.

DESCRIPTION

CancerCare is offering a free, 12-week live support group for people in New York in their 20s and 30s who are receiving a form of active treatment (which may consist of surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, hormonal treatments and/or advanced cancer treatment). This group will provide a safe place to exchange support, get information and receive guidance while discussing the unique challenges of living through post-treatment survivorship.

START DATE

This support group meets on biweekly on Mondays from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. ET.

This group will utilize a secure video platform. Group members will still have the option to call in if they do not have access to video technology.

REGISTER

Space is limited and pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, call our Hopeline at 800-813-HOPE (4673) or contact Marlee Kiel, LMSW, at 212-712-8029 or mkiel@cancercare.org.
