

WOMEN'S CANCERS PATIENT SUPPORT GROUP

CANCERcare®

Over 75 Years of Help and Hope

The group is open to New York residents only.

Jennifer LaPietra, LMSW
Bilingual Oncology Social Worker

CancerCare is offering a free, 8-biweekly live support group for women identifying patients diagnosed with breast cancer or gynecologic cancers who are receiving a form of active treatment (including surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, hormonal treatments and/or advanced cancer treatment) or have received treatment within the past 6 months.

Space is limited and pre-registration is required.

START DATE

BI-WEEKLY ON MONDAYS from 6 p.m. - 7 p.m. ET

This group will provide the opportunity for women who have been diagnosed with cancer a safe space to learn, share their feelings, gather information, and receive guidance while discussing the unique challenges of living with a cancer diagnosis including body image and view of self.

This group will be held virtually using Zoom. If you are not able to use the video function, you will also be able to call into the group.
