

LIVING WITH CANCER: A GENERAL PATIENT SUPPORT GROUP (LONG ISLAND)

This group is open to Long Island residents only.

Melisa Celikoyar, MSW, LCSW
Long Island Program Coordinator

CancerCare is offering a free, biweekly live support group for people diagnosed with cancer in the Long Island, NY community who are receiving a form of active treatment (which may consist of surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, hormonal treatments and/or advanced cancer treatment).

Space is limited and pre-registration is required.

START DATE

BIWEEKLY ON THURSDAYS FROM 5:30 p.m. - 7 p.m. ET

This group will provide a safe place to exchange support, get information and receive guidance while discussing the unique challenges of living with a cancer diagnosis. This group is available to serve people diagnosed with cancer within the Long Island community and will consist of 8 biweekly meetings.

This group will be held virtually using Zoom. If you are not able to use the video function, you will also be able to call into the group.
