Living With Cancer: Lung Cancer Patient Support Group

Weekly Support Group

A diagnosis of cancer can come when you least expect it. Suddenly your world has changed. You may feel overwhelmed and anxious and have questions about what lies ahead. The opportunity to connect with others living with cancer can help you feel less alone.

DESCRIPTION

CancerCare is offering a free, 12-week live support group for people diagnosed with lung cancer in New York who are receiving a form of active treatment or for post-treatment survivors. This group will provide a safe place to exchange support, get information and receive guidance while discussing the unique challenges of living with a cancer diagnosis.

START DATE:

This support group takes place on Wednesdays from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. ET.

REGISTER

Space is limited and pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, call our Hopeline at 800-813-HOPE (4673) or contact Winfield Boerckel, LCSW-R, at 516-740-8620 or email wboerckel@cancercares.org.
