

CONNECTING WITH CAREGIVERS: YOUNG ADULT SUPPORT GROUP

CANCERcare®

Over 75 Years of Help and Hope

Has your parent, sibling, family member or friend been diagnosed with cancer? Caring for a loved one can be an overwhelming experience.

Julia Manna, LMSW
Oncology Social Worker

CancerCare is offering a free, biweekly live support group (8 sessions) for people in New York in their 20s and 30s who are caring for a loved one with cancer.

This group is open to New York clients and is free, but pre-registration via Zoom is required.

MONDAYS FROM 5:30 p.m. - 7 p.m. ET

This group will provide a safe place to exchange support and receive information and guidance while discussing the unique challenges of caregiving as a young adult.

This group will be held virtually using Zoom. If you are not able to use the video function, you will also be able to call into the group.
